APRIL Price Increase

Dear Valued Customer:

Lomanco will be implementing a general price increase on April 1, 2019.

The amount of the increase will be 5% on all products. However, increases may vary depending on the individual product.

Your Lomanco Area Market Manager will be providing you with the specific details for these increases within the coming weeks. We will continue to provide any necessary support for your success and the mutual growth of our companies. With your help, we look forward to building an even stronger future.

Lomanco will continue to provide the market with the best products, service, salespeople, and communication in the industry.

We appreciate your support and thank you for your valued business.

Sincerely,

Mike Nichols
Director of Sales
